Culturally Sustaining Pedagogies (CSP) & Universal Design for Learning (UDL)

South Bend, IN
April 17, 2019

Registration: http://go.iu.edu/28Lr

Date: April 17, 2019

Time: 8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
(Registration opens at 8 a.m.)

Location: Indiana Univ. South Bend
Student Activities Center
941 20th St.
South Bend, IN 46615
(574) 520-4872

Cost: $50 (lunch included)

Workshop Coordinators: Brooke Harris Garad, Ph.D.
Adam Henze

Contact: iidccell@indiana.edu
(812) 855-6508

---

Intended for: Educators, PK-12, interested in Culturally Sustaining Pedagogies and Universal Design for Learning, or those interested in teaching all learners

Topic: This workshop will invite participants to develop a deeper understanding of Culturally Sustaining Pedagogies (CSP) and Universal Design for Learning (UDL). Participants will have opportunities to think critically about CSP and UDL in relation to their own cultural and classroom practices. At the end of the workshop, participants will be able to describe how Culturally Sustaining Pedagogies complement a Universal Design for Learning framework, and vice versa. Participants will also work on an action plan for making curricular and/or classroom changes informed by CSP and UDL.