Culturally Sustaining Pedagogies (CSP) & Universal Design for Learning (UDL)

Columbus, IN
February 19, 2019

Registration: http://go.iu.edu/28Lq

Date: February 19, 2019

Time: 8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
(Registration opens at 8 a.m.)

Location: Bartholomew Consolidated School Corporation Admin. Building (BCSC)
1200 Central Ave.
Columbus, IN 47201
(812) 372-8211

Cost: $50 (lunch included)

Workshop Coordinators: Brooke Harris Garad, Ph.D.
Adam Henze

Contact: iidccell@indiana.edu
(812) 855-6508

Intended for: Educators, PK-12, interested in Culturally Sustaining Pedagogies and Universal Design for Learning, or those interested in teaching all learners

Topic:
This workshop will invite participants to develop a deeper understanding of Culturally Sustaining Pedagogies (CSP) and Universal Design for Learning (UDL). Participants will have opportunities to think critically about CSP and UDL in relation to their own cultural and classroom practices. At the end of the workshop, participants will be able to describe how Culturally Sustaining Pedagogies complement a Universal Design for Learning framework, and vice versa. Participants will also work on an action plan for making curricular and/or classroom changes informed by CSP and UDL.